ULTRO

the ultimate pavement sign

The Ulro pavement sign combines many features to make it the ultimate pavement sign — wide range of base colours, option of PVC or aluminium powder-coated panels, water weightable base, unique panel locking system, wheel option and ultra modern design.

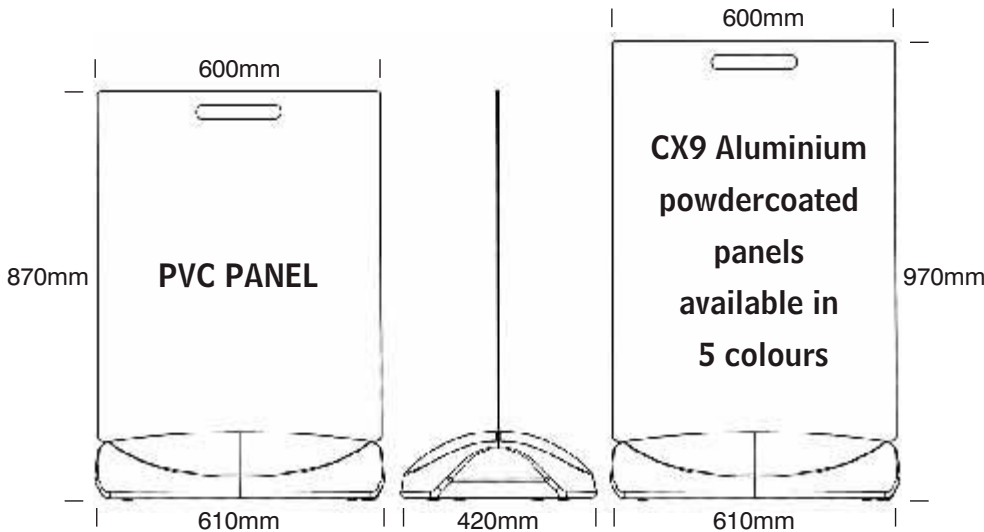

Corporate match colours and moulded in logos are also available on request.

CX9 aluminium panels are available in black, white, yellow, dark blue and metallic silver.

Smaller footprint than other bases

The Ulro base has a smaller footprint than other bases available meaning less pavement obstruction. The design of the base enables it to take up to 14kgs of water, giving a total base weight of up to 17kgs.

Wheel option for ease of use

Panel locks in place

Water weightable base

Option of PVC or aluminium powder coated panels
